

Curriculum vitae - Ergin Ermin

- Ergin Ermin was born on August 31, 1964 in the town of Kubrat, Razgrad region.
- Since 2005 he has been executive director and member of the Board of directors of the Association of Bulgarian towns and regions, which is engaged in the development of programs and training courses for local and regional growth.
- 2002 – Course in 'Political skills' at PACE (Political Academy for Central and South-Eastern Europe), the town of Ihtiman, whose goals are to develop and implement through training programs modern decision-making practices. To develop and implement academic programs for political training, which meet the requirements of modern models for interactive training. To foster collaboration with state and academic institutions for the devising of a modern educational and research strategy.
- Since 2001 he has been head of Civic Association 'EVET' (European Vision for Ethnic Tolerance). The association is engaged in management, project development and training in the field of non-government organizations.
- 2001-2005 - Worked as a free-lance consultant and consulted small and medium-range businesses on the issues of administrative structures.
- 2000-2001 - Executive director of the 'Tobacco' fund at the Ministry of agriculture and forests. The fund's activities included management of the production, quality assessment, buyout, industrial processing and trade of tobacco, as well as the manufacturing and trade of tobacco products.
- 2000 – Attended the higher-education School of administration at the Ministry of Internal Affairs, Italy (S.S.A.I., Rome, Italy) specializing in Administrative management.
- 1999-2003 – Served as municipal councilor in Razgrad. The focus of his work was local administration and the Local self-government and local administration Act.
- 1999-2000 – Chief Secretary for Razgrad region. Responsible for the management, coordination and control of the local administration's activities in regards to the due implementation of the normative statutes.
- 1999 – Worked for foundation 'Civic Society Development' as an expert on the evaluation of project applications submitted to the foundation.
- 1999 – Worked at the Agency for Small and Medium Establishments as a representative for Razgrad regional administration. Organization and management of the activities of small and medium establishments in Razgrad region.
- 1998 – Worked at the Association for culture and education 'Aleph' as a consultant on the project possibilities in the mixed-populations regions of Bulgaria.
- 1989-1999 – 'Antibiotic' AD – OP2 section, technical engineer. Management and organization of the production of antibiotics, vitamins, enzymes, and other bio-active products.